Dear Mrs. Parlow,

That was a real surprise, the history of the Quakers!

I hope it sounds beautifully, and as you have the possibility to give it back in case it would not be first quality, so I am quite and impatiently curious to look ^{on} and hear it. — As a great deal of my work for this season has finished, I feel better, sleeping quietly. - Encouraged with Kathleen's success at Leipzig, Holland and not less, that the sairée at Berlin will take place. -

Now, I ask You to make a little commission for me at Berlin, on Your way to Russia.

There is a big Cigar shop corner Friedrich and Französische Strasse; will You please take 150 Cigars (including here the order) and pay for them about 60-75 marks, which I shall give You bag after You arrived. -

There will not be any trouble at the Customs-house; each traveller can bring with him, 99 pieces. - You have only to show them by the visite of Your baggage. -

Thank You so much for Your letters and the trouble I give You now. —
All the girls are excited awaiting for Kathleen. —

Best love To You and the child.!

L. Ames
